Announcement

MEETING ANNOUNCEMENT

The NJ ACFEs have a fascinating presentation scheduled for the February 16th dinner meeting!

Featured Speakers:

Lesley C. Risinger

D. Michael Risinger

Professors Lesley Risinger and Michael Risinger teach at Seton Hall Law School and are the co-founders of The Last Exoneration Project, which offers free (pro bono) investigative and legal services to the convicted innocent of New Jersey. Join us to hear Lesley and Michael talk about their experiences bringing justice to convicted innocents.

Thursday, February 16, 2012, 6:00 pm

Holiday Inn

1000 Roosevelt Avenue (Turnpike Exit 12), Carteret, New Jersey
(Networking 6-6:30; dinner 6:30-7:30; lecture 7:30-8:30)

Cost and Reservations (please note the changes in pricing):

$35 for New Jersey Chapter Members

$45 for non-members

$30 for full-time students (with Student ID)

Payment may be made in cash or by check made out to "ACFE-NJ" at the door.

We are unable to accept credit cards.

The cost includes networking, dinner, and one (1) CPE credit.

Reservations are strongly recommended.

Email chapter Treasurer Rebecca Fitzhugh (rebecca.fitzhugh@sobel-cpa.com)
to reserve your seat no later than February 14th.

Note to all NJ CFE members:

We are always looking for new members so if you know of anyone interested in our organization, please give them an application or invite them to a dinner meeting as your guest. Chapter dues are $25 for members and $30 for associates.

The meeting is open to all Certified Fraud Examiners, Associate Certified Fraud Examiners, their guests and any individuals interested in increasing their knowledge of detection and prevention of fraud. The program complies with New Jersey State Board of Accountancy rules for the award of Continuing Professional Education (CPE) credit.
